

Knowledge for a Clean Energy Future

Newsletter n° 5 2019

Enel Foundation is a non-profit organization.

Enel Foundation focuses on clean energy's crucial role in ensuring a sustainable future for all. We conduct research and education exploring the implications of global challenges in the energy domain. We operate in partnership, at the intersection of business and society.

TOP STORY

2019 class of Open Africa Power engaged in the Italian module

The 2019 edition of Open Africa Power concluded with the final residential module in Italy. For two weeks, 16 students from 8 African countries, selected based on their academic merit during the program, attended special sessions delivered by Enel Foundation Italian Academic partners, visited state-of-the-art electrical facilities managed by the Enel Group, and engaged in different events to develop their network while experiencing firsthand the many features of innovation in the energy space.
