Open Africa Power 2021

Forging a new generation of clean energy leaders for Africa

Kicking off Open Africa Power 2021

Today (June, 7) the African module of Open Africa Power 2021 officially begins, kicking off the 4th edition of this education venture started by Enel Foundation in 2018. The course will be delivered online by our partner the Graduate School of Business \(GSB\) of the University of Cape Town, and it will offer students the possibility to get a deep understanding of how to provide sustainable energy access for all in the continent. The class sees the gender-balanced participation of 90 outstanding individuals from 28 African countries, nearly half of which holding a PhD or MBA degree. We couldn't be more excited for them to begin this new journey and start shaping the future of Africa!
