SACE 2021 Risk Map: risks and sustainable recovery for Italian export in 2021

March 2, 2021

SACE presented the 2021 Risk Map, an essential tool to identify the greatest opportunities for business abroad, keeping the risks under control. This year's report has been enriched, as a result of the partnership with Enel Foundation, evolving traditional country risk methodologies with new sustainability indicators as indispensable elements of the global prosperity puzzle: equitable wealth distribution, climate change and energy transition.
