

Open Africa Power

2018 Edition

Forging a new generation of African leaders in the energy sector

Candidates

Over 140 applications

29 Selected candidates

17 Male
12 Female

9 African countries represented:

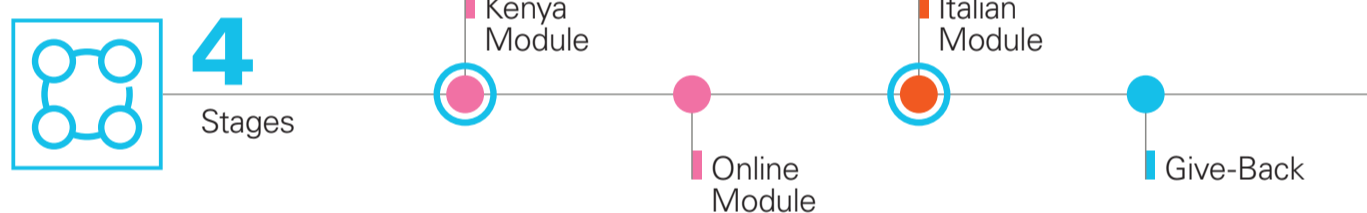

- Cameroon
- Cote D'Ivoire
- Ethiopia
- Kenya
- Nigeria
- South Africa
- Togo
- Uganda
- Zimbabwe

Academic and professional backgrounds

- Engineering
- Law
- IT
- Business

6 Months, training from April to September 2018

Program structure

Kenya State of the Art

15 Sessions held in 5 days at Strathmore University

13 Speakers from:

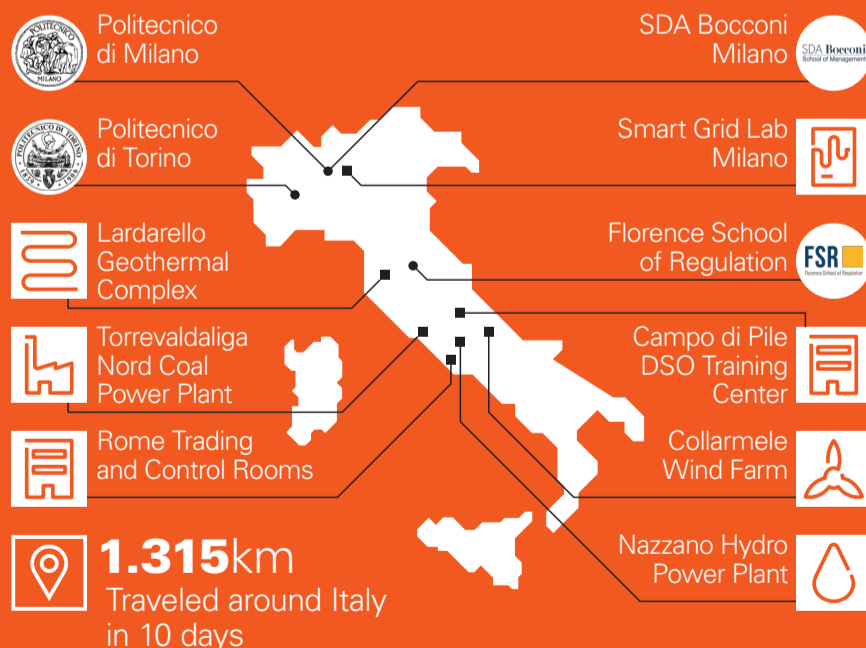

- Enel
- UN-Habitat
- GiveWatts
- ARISE - Private Sector partnership of the UN Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNISDR)
- Mawazo Institute
- Kenya Climate Innovation Centre

100 Online learning hours

Italy New Frontiers

7 Enel facilities visited by the 12 selected candidates

4 Academic partners involved

Academic Partner Institutions

Classes at Campus Duca Abruzzi on big data, ICT for smart grids, energy transition and energy production.

Classes at Campus Bovisa included smart and integrated infrastructure, energy production, wind tunnel and other testing facilities.

Classes at Campus SDA Bocconi included climate change economics, e-mobility and Renewable Energy Network (REN) investment indicators.

"Regulation for Universal Access to Energy" 17 weeks on-line course analyses the multi-dimensional approach to energy access, by emphasising the role of regulation.

Knowledge Platform for a Clean Energy Future
www.enelfoundation.org

